ON THE STREETS YOU'RE GUILTY...UNTIL PROVEN DEAD

Title: American Roulette

Director: Seyi

Country Of Origin: United States

Running Time: TBA mins. (In Post Production)

Original Language: English

Synopsis:

A sharply controversial new documentary on racial profiling and police brutality created by rising New York filmmaker Seyi. The feature length film explores multiple facets of the crisis through the thoughts and eyes of people in minority communities and law enforcement, as well as widows of officers killed in the line of duty.

Some of the interviewees in the final version of the film, which will have a wide theatrical release, include:

Eric Adams: Lieutenant NYPD, Founder and President of 100 Black Men In Law Enforcement Who Care

Elijah Cummings: Head of Congressional Black Caucus and Representative from Baltimore

Manning Marable: African American Studies Chair at Columbia University

Graham Weatherspoon: Retired NYPD Detective

Madeline Neumann: Widow of NJ cop and NJ founder of C.O.P.S (Concerns Of Police Survivors)

Richie Perez: National Coordinator of the National Congress for Puerto Rican Rights

Nick Heyward Sr: Father of slain youth

Milta Calderon: Mother of slain youth

Maureen King: Widow of slain NJ cop

Kevin McGratten: NJ State trooper

Jim Fotis: Executive Director of Law Enforcement Alliance of America

Additional surprise interviewees will be announced when the final version of the film is released.

A graduate of Berklee College of Music, Seyi wrote and produced the acclaimed modern ballet "Music For Travelers" and directed the film "Don't Explain". He is in development on his next feature 'Israel's Blues', a prison drama, scheduled to go in production next Spring.
