Museum City Series (10 x 60)

Art lovers, travel enthusiasts and history buffs will appreciate this unique view of the world's most beautiful and historic cities...their museums and art, buildings and parks...the heritage and culture of the city as seen through the eyes of its artists, architects and poets.

Florence: Cradle Of The Renaissance/Venice: Queen Of The Adriatic – Florence, cradle of rebirth in art, architecture, literature and philosophy... the city that lit the way out of the Dark Ages, bringing us Botticelli's The Birth of Venus, Michelangelo's David, and Brunelleschi's incredible dome... these marvels of western civilization... and more. Historic Venice, the fairy-tale city rising from the sea on 119 islands that create its 160 canals. A celebration of the art and architecture of this most breathtaking city. Marvel at the Piazza di San Marco, the jeweled Basilica and the Palace of the Doges...a thousand years of glorious history and the heartbreaking beauty that is Venice.

London: City Of Majesty - London...home of princes and politicians, high tea and Hyde Park, William Shakespeare and William the Conqueror. Come with us to the forbidding Tower of London...the splendor of the Houses of Parliament...the bustle of Fleet Street. A stately city whose extraordinary museums and monuments, architecture and literature, parks and pubs reflects its 2,000 year cultural and intellectual history.

Rome: The Eternal City - Rome is for everyone—everyone's city of the Soul. City of Julius Caesar, the Roman Forum, the Trevi Fountain, the Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Church inside the Vatican. The City of Popes, where Michelangelo, Raphael and Bernini wrought their masterworks. People everywhere come to seek its fabled wonders. It is once and forever... Rome, The Eternal City.

Barcelona: Archive Of Courtesy - Barcelona... From the soaring jewel-like spires of Gaudi's Sagrada Familia church and the winding streets of the Gothic Quarter, to the vibrant canvases of some of history's greatest artists — Picasso, Miro, Dali — to the futuristic Olympic City in Montjuic Park, Catalonia's visionary spirit is emblazoned in the culture of its capital city. Barcelona has defined the vanguard of Spanish art and culture for 2,000 years, while remaining inextricably bound to its glorious past and independent nature.

Seville: Jewel of Andalusia - Seville's ancient streets bear the imprint of the multitude of peoples and cultures that have called this city Home: Romans, Visigoths, Muslims, Jews and Christians. Explore the Roman ruins of Italica, the lush Moorish palace of the Alcazar, the delicate beauty of Santa Cruz, and the city landmark, La Giralda. Seville is unending history, the breath of many cultures that lived, fought and flourished together.

Vatican City: Art and Glory - Through the eyes of its artists and architects, you will see the splendors of the Italian city that houses some of the greatest treasures of Western civilization: Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel ceiling and Pieta, the Apollo Belvedere, Raphael's School of Athens and much more. Discover the tale behind the creation of these great works.
