Description:

A grim tale of the hardships suffered by two young friends who have no home to return to after the end of the ‘lost war’ and, as a result, make their way to a Belgrade characterized by food shortages, corruption and the ‘new trends’ that have come with the end of Communism and the ostracism of Serbia.

All the same, Sergije (who is Croatian) and Nikola (who comes from Bosnia) manage to find jobs of a kind – as lifeguards on Lake Sava, where they become dependent on ‘Madame’, a local fixer who organizes and deals in everything. As the hot days continue, Sergije falls in love with Sonya, who has turned to prostitution to support her younger brother and sister.

The film, which was written by veteran screenwriter Gordan Mihic (Time Of The Gypsies, Tango Argentino, Someone Else’s America), has won multiple film festival prizes around the world including Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actor, Best Actress and Best Screenplay. The award-winning filmmaker Mirjana Vukomanovic comes from television where she is known for her children’s programming, tv series, entertainment shows and documentaries.

Connoisseurs of Yugoslav film will be pleased to see the return of Milena Dravic – star of such Dusan Makavejev movies as WR: Mysteries Of The Organism and Sweet Movie – in the role of Sonya’s stepmother, while most of the rest of the cast played in Emir Kusturica’s Cannes prize-winner Underground.
